“THE SIMPLEST OF THINGS” MAKES ITS MARK

Kate Rowe’s debut album ‘The Simplest of Things’ continues to be warmly received by audiences and critics alike.

Kate was awarded the BluFM89.1 Award for Outstanding Contribution to Country Music on the 21st November for the song ‘Jindabyne’, a moving account of a family journey to fulfil a father’s last wishes.

Bernard Zuel of The Sydney Morning Herald recently commented on Kate’s “charm” and “story-rich songs”, while Robyn Jarman of The Stix said of Kate’s CD “Kate has a way with words that is just delightful.... Her lyrics are compelling, her delivery fantastic [...] and all of the songs charming.”

Following the success of her sell-out album launch, Kate has been busy performing at events such as the Lawson Festival and the BluFm89.1 Music Awards, and will travel to Tasmania in January to perform at the Cygnet Folk Festival and to support the acclaimed Spooky Men’s Chorale on their tour of Tasmania.
